Who We Are

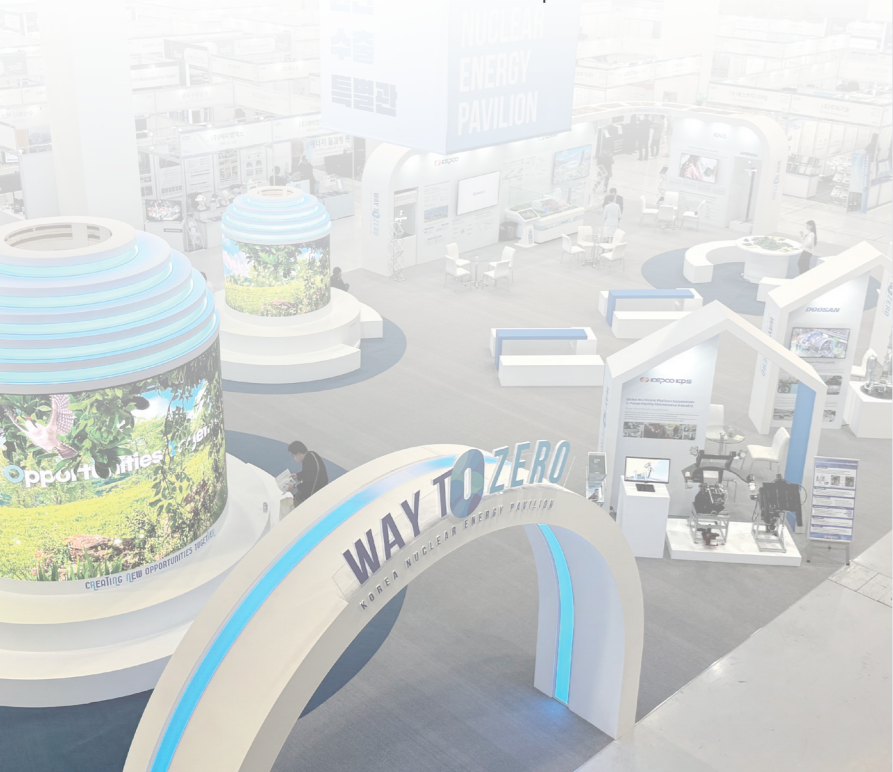

Connecting You and the Korean Nuclear Industry

Established in 2011, the Korea Nuclear Association (KNA) is a non-profit organization founded to act as a bridge for international cooperation on behalf of the Korean Nuclear Industry.

What We Aim For

Bridge for International Cooperation

Our mission is to enhance the competitiveness of both Korean and global nuclear industries through extensive cooperation and strong partnerships across all areas of nuclear power.

What We Do

Cooperation

Representing the Korean Nuclear Industry

KNA collaborates with over 70 organizations to promote active cooperation and partnerships within the Korean nuclear industry. We design effective strategies to showcase what the Korean nuclear industry can offer the world.

Communication

Expanding Global Networks

We develop business opportunities for Korean and international nuclear societies to exchange knowledge and expertise. We forge partnerships with industrial, academic, and government organizations around the world.

Strategic Partnership

Building relationships with organizations globally

Knowledge Exchange

Developing communication channels between Korea and its partner countries for sharing insights and knowledge

Industry Invitations

Offering partner countries the chance to visit and discover the Korean Nuclear Industry's history and progress

Connection

Linking Korean and World Nuclear Industry

We support the global nuclear industry by providing exceptional networking opportunities, facilitating exploration of potential business growth within the industry.

Global Networking

Widening networks by providing opportunities for nuclear industry professionals to connect with their partners around the world

Event Organization

Hosting international exhibitions and conferences to promote nuclear industries' potentials to the global market

Market Insight

Publishing comprehensive status and forecast reports to provide useful, real-time information of the global nuclear market

Contribution

Better Future for the Next Generation

To create a better world for future generation, we offer educational programs worldwide and create opportunities for industry professionals to share their knowledge and expertise.

Educational Opportunities

Providing young nuclear talents from around the world with both in-class and on-field education to support their development as future industry leaders

Knowledge Sharing

Supporting the next generation of nuclear leaders from newcomer countries by enabling Korean experts to share their knowledge and expertise

Our Partners

KNA contributes to the nuclear society by facilitating communication and cooperation between Korea and the global nuclear industry. With the unwavering support of the Korean nuclear industry, KNA promotes Korea's competitiveness on the global stage.
